Some obstacles had been thrown into the School Board's path when the Yukon site, which was originally intended for an elementary school, was taken over by the State for a State highway. Negotiations are still going on over the Edison site, Dr. Hull pointed out. The owners are demanding $9500 per acre; the school board is offering $9250; the value of the land was $3500 formerly, Dr. Hull said. "If we can get under way on this site, Perry should have relief by next fall," the superintendent said. The board also took action to provide a dining patio for Perry as well as for three other schools, thus providing cafeterias for all schools in the district.
